P R E F A C E.

THE Contributions to the Fifth Volume of the Collections refer, with the exception of Mr. CARRICK MOORE's paper, exclusively to the County of Wigtown.

It is a matter for congratulation that in consequence of the co-operation of several gentlemen in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, that moiety of Galloway has been added to the field open to the enterprise of the Association, which, as decided by the Council at their Meeting at Ayr on 29th July, will henceforth bear the title of THE ARCHÆOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION OF AYRSHIRE AND GALLOWAY.

The Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, formerly united with the County of Wigtown in the Principality or petty Regality of Galloway, offers a promising field for research; and it is hoped that those who possess remains, either prehistoric, baronial, or ecclesiastical, will be willing to allow of their systematic examination, under such circumstances as will enable an accurate record and description to be preserved in these Collections.

One of those who was foremost in promoting the extension of the Association to Kirkcudbright has lately been removed, and in the death of the last EARL of SELKIRK a heavy loss has ensued to the district with which he was so long and so honourably connected.

The special thanks of the Association are due to Mr. JOHNSTON STEWART of Physgill, and to Mr. NICHOLSON in Kidsdale, for their valuable assistance in the exploration of St. Ninian's Cave; to the EARL of STAIR and to LORD BORTHWICK for labourers and other aid provided in the examination of the Crannogs described in Dr. Munro's paper; to the NATIONAL SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES OF SCOTLAND for the loan of several woodcuts used among the illustrations of the paper on "Ancient Implements," etc.; as well as to Mr. ROBERT DAY, Younger, of Cork, who lent the engraving of the Port Glenone trumpet.

Among those whose kindness and co-operation have contributed much to the information collected in the various papers, may be mentioned ALEXANDER WAUGH, Esq., of Newton-Stewart, Dr. SELBY of Port-William, Dr. DOUGLAS of Whithorn, Dr. GEMMEL of Drummole, Dr. TROTTER of Perth, Rev. J. SMITH, Glenluce, Mr. M'MASTER, Blairbuie, Mr. YOUNG, Balcraig, Mr. M'COSH, Cairngaun, Mr. PICKEN, Barnkirk, Mr. M'CONCHIE, Penninghame Mains, and others.

With the exception of the Heraldic Plate presented by the Editor, the cost of the Volume has been entirely defrayed out of the funds of the Association.

A design for a Seal of the Association having been submitted to the Council and approved of, appears on the title-page of this Volume. It will be printed on a form of Vote of Thanks, which will in future be available for presentation to Associations or individuals who promote the objects of Archæology in Ayrshire and Galloway, either by exerting themselves in the preservation of relics or by the collection and furnishing of information to the Association.

The next Volume of Collections will be composed of papers relating to Ayrshire.

HERBERT EUSTACE MAXWELL,

Hon. Secretary for Galloway.
